

PLACE GUNS ON AMERICAN SHIPS

RULES THAT AMERICAN SHIPS CAN FIRE ON U-BOATS AT SIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The mere appearance of a German submarine or its periscope in the presence of an American armed merchant vessel would entitle that ship, according to state department opinion today, to take all measures of protection on the presumption that the U-boat's purpose was hostile. Under this ruling an American armed merchantman could fire on a German submarine the moment it is sighted without being considered as taking aggressive action. This view is based on Germany's declared intention to sink on sight within certain zones all vessels, neutrals as well as belligerents, and whether passenger vessels, freighters or contraband carriers.

Stands Flatly on Warning

The United States was said to stand flatly on its armed merchantmen warning of March 27 last in which it definitely recognized "to prevent capture" as part of the "right of self protection" which could be exercised either by flight or resistance. The mere presence of a German submarine is declared ground for assuming hostile intent because of the deliberate statement by Germany that all vessels are to be sunk on sight. Denial by Germany of the old rule of visit and search makes all its U-boats actually hostile.

Oppose General Rule

Whether the government will issue any general rule for the guidance of American armed ship commanders is uncertain at present. Opposition to such action has been expressed on ground that the situation is now entirely clear, that in all events the action of the commander must depend on his judgment and the actual conditions prevailing and that the government does not wish to take any steps which might be construed as a deliberately hostile act by Germany.

Denial by Lansing

Reports that the state department was preparing a White Book of Germany's plots and intrigues in this country for presentation shortly either to the press or to the senate, were flatly denied by Secretary Lansing today. He said that no step was in contemplation and that no present end could be served by it.

The consensus of opinion in diplomatic quarters here today was that the action of the United States in arming its merchant shipping would in no way serve to change the policies of the several European neutral nations.

NAVY EQUIPS VESSELS AS FAST AS POSSIBLE

Action Puts United States in State of Armed Neutrality—Regarded Preliminary of War—Preparations For Extra Session of Congress Called by President for April 16—Papers to Suppress News of Sailings

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Guns, gunners and ammunition will be placed aboard American merchant ships immediately.

Navy yards were ordered today to equip the vessels as fast as possible and the action will put the United States in the position of armed neutrality, the next step beyond the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany, and possibly the preliminary of war. What ships are to be armed first, and when they will sail, will be kept secret in order to avoid endangering the lives of Americans aboard them.

Extra Session April 16

President Wilson issued the necessary orders yesterday in the belief that he has ample executive power without special authorization from congress. Simultaneously, however, he called congress to meet in special session April 16 to be in position to support him if necessary.

Preparations for arming American merchant vessels already had been taken by the government and actual work of equipping the vessels only awaited the navy department's approval of applications from ship owners. In the various navy yards along the Atlantic coast are stored guns, ammunition and other necessary equipment ready for installation.

To Heed Daniels' Appeal

In official circles today confidence was expressed that Secretary Daniels' appeal to newspapers not to seek nor publish specific news of the arming and sailing of American merchantmen would be observed. A similar appeal was made to telegraph and cable companies.

"The best news the readers can have," said the secretary, "is that the government will protect the rights of America to the freedom of the seas. The publication of details can serve no good purpose and might jeopardize human life."

CITY SOLICITOR TAKES STEPS TO RECOVER INTEREST MONEY

The first step toward the recovery of the $29,000 interest money, which is alleged to be due the city from the Lowell Trust Co., was taken today, when a writ was issued from the office of the city solicitor and placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff for serving. The writ probably will be served on the trust company this afternoon.

The ad damnum named in the writ is $10,000 and the writ is returnable on the first Monday in April in the superior court at Cambridge. About ten days ago the municipal council by vote authorized the city solicitor to take the necessary steps toward the recovery of the alleged interest money, and City Solicitor Regan has been working on the case since that time.

Monthly Bills Approved

Monthly bills were approved by the members of the municipal council this noon. Mayor O'Donnell looked over the bills earlier in the forenoon, but as one or two of the commissioners attended the funeral of Major McNulty, the bills were not approved by the rest of the council until 12 o'clock.

GERMANS SINK 12 SHIPS IN MEDITERRANEAN

BERLIN, March 10, by wireless to Seydlitz.—The following account of submarine operations was given out today by the admiralty:

"In the Mediterranean there have been sunk nine steamships and three sailing vessels, with an aggregate tonnage of $2,000. Among the ships sunk were:

"Morino, armed Italian steamer, 4150 tons, laden with cotton, sunk Feb. 14.
"Tosalia, Indian transport steamer, 4237 tons with ammunition and out from New York to Saloniki, sunk Feb. 14.

"Wathfield, armed British steamer, 3012 tons with 1500 tons of magnesium for England, sunk Feb. 21.
"French steamer of about 1000 tons sunk Feb. 22.

"Trojan Prince, armed British steamer, 2100 tons, with a cargo of feed, sunk Feb. 22.

"Burnby, armed British steamer 3655 tons, with 5200 tons of coal from Cardiff for Algiers, sunk Feb. 26.

"Armed hostile transport steamer of about 5000 tons, with a cargo of coal, sunk Feb. 26.

"Victoria, Greek steamship, 1388 tons, sunk Feb. 26.

"Craigendoran, armed British steamer 2789 tons, sunk on March 3.
"According to reports from two Italian soldiers rescued from the Italian troop transport Minas, sunk on Feb. 15, in the Mediterranean by a German submarine, the vessel had on board one general, three colonels, two majors and 1000 Italian soldiers belonging to three regiments. On account of the rough sea these men perished."

The sinking of the Rosalie, Trojan Prince and Wathfield has been announced previously by London Lloyd's. The Burnby was last reported at Barry on Feb. 12. The recent movements of the Victoria and Craigendoran are not recorded. No Italian steamship Morino is listed in the current maritime reference books.

The sinking of the Minas was announced by the German admiralty on Feb. 23. The statement said the vessel was on the way to Saloniki, and that 1900 men, a large quantity of ammunition and gold to the value of $300,000 marks had been lost.

8 OFFICERS OF GERMAN SHIP SENTENCED

FLORENCE, S. C., March 10.—Eight officers of the German steamship Liebenfels, sunk in Charleston harbor on the night of Jan. 18 last, today were sentenced to a year in the Atlanta federal penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500 each. They were convicted yesterday of sinking a vessel in a navigable stream in violation of the navigation laws. Bond was fixed at $5000 in each case which the defendants were not immediately able to give. While efforts were being made to arrange for bonds the prisoners were kept in the federal courthouse under guard.

SALVADOR NOT INVOLVED IN PLOT AGAINST U. S.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Reports that Salvador had been involved by German agents in enterprises inimical to the interests of the United States and of Guatemala were declared "preposterous" by the Salvadoran minister, Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, in a statement issued today.

"The people and government of El Salvador," the statement said, "are now and have always been particularly friendly with Guatemala and recent reports to the contrary are absurd. Germans residing in El Salvador could be counted on the fingers of one's hands and their influence nationally or locally is nil. In Guatemala, on the other hand, many of the largest coffee and other properties are owned by Germans, and it may be said that German influence is greater in that country than in any other Central American republic. But in neither case, or elsewhere in Central America, is it at all probable that German gold could seduce the governments—certainly not the people—to embroil themselves in the injury of each other or the great and good friend to the north of us—the United States.

"El Salvador has just given the best possible evidence of her peaceful and law abiding predilections by having recourse to the Central American court of justice for a settlement of her protracted diplomatic controversy with her neighbor, Nicaragua, relating to the grant by the latter to the United States of a naval base in the Bay of Fonseca—which is territorial water owned jointly with my country—rather than proceed to open hostilities over the violation of its sovereign rights.

"As to press reports of El Salvador's alleged intrigues with Mexico against the interests of Guatemala, the Diario Oficial, (the official organ of the Salvadoran government) recently published the following statement:

"El Salvador has recently received from Mexico, as a testimonial of sincere friendship, some gifts of great value and of interest which have awakened on all sides a national feeling of gratitude toward the people of that great nation. But that demonstration of cordial affection toward us on the part of a courtly and generous people gives no ground for suspecting the existence of any binding engagements of a political nature—engagements that have never been sought by the Mexican government and that, needless to say, would never have been entered into by the Salvadoran government."

10,000 BALES OF COTTON FOR N. E. MILLS

CARGO VALUED AT $2,000,000 ON LEXLAND LINE WHICH ARRIVED AT BOSTON TODAY

BOSTON, March 10.—Ten thousand bales of Egyptian cotton, valued by dealers at approximately $2,000,000, was included in the cargo of the Leyland line steamship Denon, which arrived today from Liverpool. The cotton was consigned to New England mills, some of which recently had been forced to curtail operation of part of their machinery because of the shortage of this product.

The Devonian brought home as passengers 207 Americans, who sailed from Newport News on the British steamer Parisian in January with horses for Liverpool. The men said the owners arranged to have them sent to this country on the Devonian.

SIX MONTHS IN HOUSE OF CORRECTION

MAN CHARGED WITH LARCENY OF SHOES PROVED TO BE OLD OFFENDER

Frank O'Bean, who was tried in the local police court earlier in the week on the charge of larceny of 24 pairs of shoes from the Federal Shoe Co., was called in continuance this morning. Continuance had been granted at the first trial and in the meantime the deputy had sent the man's finger prints to R. C. Hill of the prison commission. O'Bean had asked for continuance on the ground that he had never before been arrested. In a report received from the prison commission today it was found that the man had served two and one-half years in state prison, being sentenced on the charge of breaking, entering and larceny from the Plymouth County court on Oct. 21, 1912. He also served one year in the Salem jail on a similar charge. He was known under the names of Frank Archel, John Smith and Frank O'Bean. He was sentenced to six months in the house of correction on the charge of larceny from the Federal Shoe Co. John J. Donovan, called on, the charge of drunkenness, was given a suspended sentence to the state farm. Judson O. Atherton paid a $10 fine for drunkenness.

John Pruit, charged with larceny, pleaded not guilty through counsel and the case was continued until next Friday for trial.

WASHINGTON LETTER BY SUN CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The echo of inauguration has not yet passed. Thousands of flags still flutter from public buildings and the reviewing stands remain as evidence of the parade from Capitol to White House. The president is ill and confined to his room with a severe cold and said to fear keenly the reaction of the strenuous week just ended. Already the 65th congress is well under way with the extra session of the senate in stirring debate and facing another jam of bills as soon as the house is also called into session. The senate is sitting here for the first time in a session during these critical international times and is on hand ready to share the burden.

The closing scenes of the 64th congress were unusual. Those of the senate for the intense bitterness and the criticism which marked the failure to pass the president's bill carrying an appropriation of $115,000,000 and giving to the president the power now held by congress of assuming absolute authority regarding a proposed peace or war policy. In the house it was the other extreme and the end of the session was marked by a wonderful blending of sentiment and jollity. In both instances the scene was intensely dramatic. In the senate men battled for the right to stand by whichever side of the question they believed to be for the safety and interest of the nation.

In the house it was tremendously impressive to look down from the galleries on a hundred of men—many of them of nation-wide note—watch them say good-bye; hear them sing in one grand chorus, "God be with you till we meet again;" see the stars and stripes wave over their heads while they sing the national hymn in the chorus of which thousands in the galleries joined with fervor. Conroy of New York, a very dearly loved member of the house, died the night before, and many a man brushed away tears as the throng softly sang "There Will Be One Vacant Chair," for "twice Conroy who always led the Swan Songs of the house at the end of each congress in his fine strong tenor voice. And now Conroy is dead and they sing his requiem. Then came old-time melodies and gradually a return to the gaiety which marked the end. Every body clapped his neighbor on the back, congratulated the comers home and wished the lame duck better luck next time. But in the senate there was neither time nor taste for laughter. It was grappling with the most serious issue for many years. Each faction was ready to sacrifice itself on the altar of public opinion for what it believed right. Lafayette's speech was smothered and the congress ended with a democratic senator holding the floor. The democrats had put Senator Robinson in the chair, and did not dare make the change back to either the vice president or the president pro tempore, fearing a ship-up in their determination that the debate should end with Hatcher as speaker. So the democrats were brought to a close by a senator called from the floor, although both the officers whose proper function to announce adjournment were on hand. Such an instance is said to be previously unknown in senate annals.

German Examined Motor Boats
It is impossible to obtain direct information regarding the intention of the government to utilize the motor boat squadron for searching for submarines, but there is strong reason to believe the fleet of motor boats already enrolled in the squadron are undergoing a pretty thorough examination as to their fitness for such service. A bill passed congress last summer authorizing the use of a special flag for the squadron and it was then understood that such boats would be utilized as a sort of auxiliary naval force in case of need. It has also come to light that some of the supposed government examinations made of motor boats has been under the guise of a wolf in sheep's clothing, and were not official, but made from the enemy's camp in order to ascertain the strength of the motor boat movement. This was found to be the case in several instances along the southern coast line.

Carine Corps Vacancies
Approximately 150 vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant in the Marine Corps are soon to be filled. The candidates can be graduates of the naval academy, non-commissioned officers of the Marine Corps of taken from civil life. The brigadier general of the Marine Corps states that about 30 will probably be appointed from the two first mentioned classes, leaving 120 vacancies to be filled from civil life. It is proposed to hold an examination of candidates of the latter class on or about July 10 next. The

Scarcity of Beans
Curb your bean appetite and eat fishballs! Not only has the price of beans risen to more than three times what it was a few years ago, but there are not beans enough in the country to go round. The crop run short and at the same time the boys in the trenches found the Boston baked beans to be both filling and sustaining, and so there is no second helping left for stay-at-home. The government keeps strict tabs on beans just as it does wheat, coal and other necessities, so it is no guesswork to state that the people of the United States eat eleven million bushels of dry beans each year—that is when they can get them. This year only nine million bushels were raised and at that amount they were exported at the rate of three million bushels so that six million bushels of the famous Boston baked beans were left to satisfy the appetite and stomach capacity for consuming 11 million bushels.

Garden Seeds
Since the word has gone out, "Make your own garden," members of congress have had more than ten times the usual number of requests for free seeds. One Massachusetts member this week received a letter from a constituent asking for enough potatoes to plant an acre of land, although most of the requests do not ask for quite such a liberal distribution. One thing seems certain, the seeds asked for distributed this year will not hold out, if the increased demand continues.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the theatres mentioned.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Libonati, the king of xelophonists, will hold forth at the B. F. Keith theatre tomorrow afternoon and evening, and he will give an entirely new program of popular melodies—the kind that just proves irresistible. But, in addition to this popular musician, there will also be on the program: Northland & Ward, in their potpourri of songs and conversation; Valmont & Reynen, in operatic numbers; Pistol & Cushing, in comic songs; Tibber's traitorous seals; and Johnson & Kleber, Instrumentalists. A number of good mellow pictures will likewise be shown.

A bill of surprises will be offered to the patrons of the theatre next week, when a show of headline acts will be presented. "Rocking the Boat," a gay-hearted sketch, in which Eva Taylor, Lawrence Grattan & Co. appear, is one of the very best skits in vaudeville. The sea on which the boat is tossing is the sea of matrimony, and while the real boat is in the act, it is, after all, rather a metaphorical one. The act is one which was written by Miss Taylor, and she has one of the leading roles in it. Clark & Verdi, who portray Italian immigrants, will score a knock-out with their work. One of the immigrants is wise in the customs of this country, but the other is the wisest ignorant. How the very wise one tells the innocent brother about this great land raises hundreds of laughs. A monologist of the "nut" variety is Joe Towle, who, every time he accomplishes his feat isn't divulged, but it is said to be a novel way. "The Dream Garden" is an effective musical offering, participated in by a young women's chorus. Ensemble work is decidedly fine. Martinetti & Sylvester, called "the boys with the chairs," provide a novelty in acrobatics. They take the most astounding falls and bumps, but come up smiling. Nathan Morgan has both beauty and talent, and her voice is a sweet soprano. Nener & Kappel mix up comedy with singing and dancing. "The Fate of the Hero" will be shown at every performance, and a complete change of them will come on Thursday.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

This evening will be the last chance for the theatre folks of Lowell to see "The Life of Our Saviour," the dramatic play which is the offering of the Emerson players at the Opera House. Sunday afternoon and night at the Opera House, a particularly good program of vaudeville and picture features will be offered, the management having secured five very brilliant and popular acts. Timmons in a novelty sketch called "The Life of Our Saviour," is sure to make one of the biggest hits of the season. These three boys, with a piano, uncovers funny songs, hits and their comedy is first class. Another act that is certain to score a tremendous hit is "Wastika and Understudy," the dynamic comedienne in songs and chatter is another sure fire hit while Walker and Ill have a comedy offering that bubbles over with laughter and wit. "The Life of Our Saviour" is being shown at every performance, and a complete change of them will come on Thursday.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The final presentation of "The Battle Cry of Peace" will be given this evening at 8 o'clock at the Playhouse.

The company are Du Tuille, and Abbott, the composers of all the restricted songs sung by the company. The Murray Brothers, clever character men, singers and dancers, who have been with the company for the past four years. Dave Harris, the clever comedian, needs no introduction. There is Mr. Brown, the straight man, Mr. Knebel, the musical director, Jake Kauter is a man who is always on the spot while Marie Doro, who is the sweetest girl on the stage, makes one of the biggest hits.

Miss Ollie Perkins is a clever singer and knows how to put over numbers. The chorus is composed of Miss Ethel Keary, Anna Barry, Kathleen Moore, Evelyn Keene, Grace Keene, Mrs. Wendell, Ethel Mason, Mary Pauline, and Minnie Wilson.

This company carries 238 sets of wardrobe.

THE HAGUE, via London, March 10.—Further extracts from the speech of the socialist deputy, Herr Hofer, during the sensational food debate in the Reichstag, which are reported in the R.

"The government vacillates between fear of the agriarians and fear of the masses, like a reed in the wind. If it insists on carrying on war you must know that the people are adequately armed. It is not sufficient for the government to say: 'We are not going to fight.'"

The Vorwaerts says that Herr K frequently was cheered. Elsewhere the paper says that latterly it has received numerous complaints of poor quality and indifferent preparation of the food supplied in the particular food kitchens at midday and declares that the evening meals in places are unfit for consumption. Vorwaerts asks what will be the condition in summer if this is the case in cold weather.

PRESIDENT WILSON ACTS

President Wilson after due deliberation as to his legal authority has decided to order merchantmen armed for passage through the German war zone. The attorney general and Secretary Lansing, a high authority on constitutional and international law, assert that the president has the power to take this step in defence of American rights and American lives. But although acting on his individual responsibility, President Wilson foresees possible trouble ahead on which he may need the endorsement and the counsel of congress. Besides, there are many important measures left over from the last congress which in the interest of the nation should be enacted. Hence he has wisely called an extra session of congress.

In the new congress, the senate will be relieved of the menace of unlimited debate and the senators who conducted the filibuster to delay action on armed neutrality will be objects of constant scrutiny and suspicion in all their movements.

In view of the network of intrigue and conspiracy with which Germany has surrounded this country from Maine to Mexico and Mexico to San Francisco, it seems that President Wilson's action is not a whit too soon. On the contrary, it may be found to have been forestalled by delay. But the fault does not rest with the president, his critics to the contrary notwithstanding.

The hour for the assertion of American rights, American patriotism and American courage has arrived. Let every citizen, high or low, stand by the president. In the present situation it is fair to assume that those who are not with us are against us.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMISSION

It must be encouraging to every right thinking citizen of Lowell that the legislature appears to favor the proposition for the appointment of a high school commission. The house of representatives has passed the bill and there is every reason to believe that the senate will do likewise. It means much to the city of Lowell to have an undertaking involving an expenditure of perhaps $1,500,000, placed in charge of men who will safeguard the city's interests at all points.

The commission, made up of competent men serving without pay and with but one motive, and that to give the city the best possible for the money expended—will do the business right. The commission will lift the money expended—will do the business right. The commission will lift the money expended—will do the business right.

With the great increase in the cost of labor and material, and the manner in which the whole building proposition is already tangled up, the task which will be turned over to the commission is one which involves many difficulties that only a continuous body removed from politics can handle in a business-like manner.

It is to be hoped that the bill will become law with all possible haste so that the commission may be appointed and get to work without any unnecessary delay.

EVICTING THE DEAD

Public sympathy will be on the side of Simon B. Harris in opposing the disinterment and reburial of the bones now occupying graves for which the commission says no deeds were issued and of which the owners have disappeared. The lot owners of every cemetery die, are buried, and after a period of time even all their friends and relatives have passed away. Because of this fact, are their bones to be disinterred and moved to a different place to be reburied perhaps as are the bodies of those killed in the war, all in a common pit? It appears that our city solicitors in the past have given opinions to the effect that such removal is legal in cases in which no deeds have been issued for the lots. If the persons buried in these lots had no right to them, why were the bodies buried there? We do not agree that graves are "abandoned" when the owners are all dead. Have the dead any rights? We rather surmise they have, although they cannot very well defend their rights against the raids of city solicitors and cemetery officials. Does the law under which length of possession confers a right of ownership apply only to the living?

This is a question which our cemetery commissioners had better consider carefully before proceeding to disinter bodies to be transferred to other parts of the cemetery. It is said the bodies will not be desecrated, but simply transferred to other lots. Well, if this be the intent, why not sell these lots instead of those classed as "abandoned"? No lot is abandoned which is tenanted by the bones of the dead, even if all the friends of the deceased have followed to the grave.

There will come a time in the ordinary course of events when not one of the present lot owners in the Edson cemetery will be left to speak for himself; and a time later on, when perhaps not a friend of any lot owner now alive will remain to show that the lot owner had acquired any legal title to the lot.

"Ah! but the records," you will exclaim. Some deeds are recorded at the registry of deeds but the majority are not. If we are to depend upon municipal records for the preservation of such documents, we fear they will be almost as evanescent as the lot owners themselves.

Thus the record of deeds to lots in the cemetery might also be lost or destroyed by fire or otherwise and then, according to the theory put forward by our present cemetery commission, all the lots would be in the abandoned class and would revert to the city. Hence after being cleared of the bones of their former occupants, they could be sold to a commission even with legal sanction. But suppose the cemetery commission was called upon to prove that no deed was issued for any of the lots in question, could they offer proofs that would be accepted in a court of law? We doubt it very much. In such cases, it is to be assumed that the second hand lots would be sold at a reduced price.

Should this policy of the commission be put into effect it might be necessary on entering the Edson cemetery to ascertain just how long the deceased would be allowed to occupy the lot without removal. Legally or technically the commission may be all right in its decision to clean out old graves and sell the lots over again, but as to a question of right and justice we think it is all wrong.

It is sometimes necessary to run a highway or a railroad through a cemetery, in which case private rights give way to public ownership and the dead seldom bring suits for damages; but apart from such an emergency, we think it is good policy to let the dead repose in peace and in undisturbed possession of the lots which they or their friends acquired at a fixed price, whether with or without a deed of record.

SPIES AND BOMB PLOTTERS
The government of the United States finds itself in a very awkward position in reference to preventing its secret business from being made known to other governments as soon as there is anything worth reporting.

It is the opinion of those in a position to know that there are thousands of spies in the country working against the government. It is a well known fact also that at the present time Mexican raids across the border are being organized under German direction. Thus a condition which very nearly approaches war confronts the government at the present time.

The department of justice has caught many of the bomb plotters redhanded and two more are now in custody, having been arrested under conditions that place them under suspicion of having caused the Black Tom, N. J., explosion last summer and also that at Kingsland, both very destructive. Indeed their arrest resulted from a rumor that they were plotting another Black Tom explosion. So many of these bomb plotters have been arrested and convicted, that it appears that those caught were but part of a great system.

Even the militia is not free from the spy system as appears from the fact that a guardsman in the Minnesota infantry, named Paul L. Scharenberg, has been sentenced to six years in prison for furnishing military information to Germany. It seems he had written a letter to parties in Germany stating that 10,000,000 Germans in this country were ready to rise up against the government in the event of war with Germany. The same writer predicted that in case of war, President Wilson "would soon be put out of the way."

Five years, it would seem, was a light penalty for such threats and acts of treachery.

The navy department has announced that it finds itself wholly unable to keep its business secret from other governments. Just as soon as it submits plans for battleships or craft of any kind, the news goes to Germany and possibly also to England. This was demonstrated when the question of an electric drive for battleships was brought up. The merits of the case and the main features of the plans were at once known to the world. How the department is to stop this has not yet been determined. From certain sources such as the Hearst papers there was the most violent criticism of the espionage bill but apparently no measure could be too severe to meet the present situation which would undoubtedly be much worse in case of war.

PARK IMPROVEMENTS

The people of the city without exception will rejoice to hear of the proposed improvements in the park department. There is a great opportunity to develop the principal parks along the lines of greater utility and attractiveness. There should be more shade in all the parks and in the principal ones there should be a shelter to which women and children could retreat in case of rain or when they want to avoid the hot sun. Supt. Kernan will make good use of all the money he gets, but, as usual, his appropriation is too limited to go far in supplying the chief needs of the department.

The board of trade has recommended a good program of street improvements, one which is much needed. Eventually if these recommended improvements are systematically carried out, we shall have a city of splendidly paved streets.

Something to Wonder About

A Scottish doctor who was attending a bird had instructed the butler of the house in the art of taking and recording his master's temperature with a thermometer. On paying his usual morning call he was met by the butler, to whom he said—

"Well, John, I hope your land's temperature is not any higher today."

The man looked puzzled for a minute and then replied—

"Well, I was just wonderin' that myself. Ye see he dead at twal o'clock."

Dusky One No Angel

Out in Chester, Pa., Priscilla Kennedy Thompson, a dusky young colored woman, is finding it difficult to convince some superstitious relatives and friends that she is not a "white-robed angel."

Priscilla's home is at Ward, a few miles out in the rural district, and while visiting her sister, Mrs. John Reynolds, at Brandywine Summit, she was afflicted with a spasm and efforts were made to get a physician. One after another was called, but none could respond, and after listening to the apologies of the doctors the scared mother and sister were horrified to see Priscilla close her eyes, and, to all intents and purposes, pass from earthly scenes.

Lamentations of relatives were accompanied by the arrival of fresh mourners, and an undertaker was sent for, but prior to his arrival the "corpse" was washed and clothed in new raiment.

It was after the undertaker had cleared the room and made preparations for his embalming process that Priscilla groaned, yawning, sneezed and suddenly sat up.

There was a frightened undertaker for a few seconds, and with a bound he left the room, convinced that he had nearly committed murder. Priscilla was astonished, too, when she found herself in slouchy garments and in such a strange predicament. She yelled for assistance and enlightenment, but it was only with much difficulty that the undertaker persuaded the mourners to enter the room.

The next night a party was arranged for the burial of Priscilla, and she was the brightest one present.

A Coupons Incident

How many times foreigners in this country have taught us the lesson of patriotism! The incident which I will relate here happened some time ago in New York City, says a writer in the New Bedford Standard.

Down town where Broadway and the Bowery meet under the shadow of a big bridge there is a store where one can trade cigarette coupons for premiums. If you want cash, the coupons are worth a half-cent apiece. The store is filled with glass cases in which there are silver coffee urns, genuine chinaware, collar buttons, fish-poles, etc., etc.

I was cashing a number of coupons when a swarthy Italian entered and shuffled up to the counter. His hair looked like a bird's nest, his comb, his hands and face were covered with dirt, and his clothes were plastered with the mud from the building excavations across the street. In his hand he held a crumpled and greasy mass of coupons which he shoved half timidly over the counter.

The female clerk was a gum-chewer. More than that, she was painted and powdered until her features resembled the side of a newly painted barn.

"Whaddy ya want?" she chewed, eyeing the Italian closely from under her peevish eyebrows.

"Gimme da biga flag," he whispered.

It was the most natural thing in the world for the female clerk to hand him a cheap Italian flag. The man touched it devotedly with his soiled fingers. A far away look entered his eyes. "No, dis a one. I want de 'Unita State flag.'"

I left the store, gazing at my eighty-nine cents rather shamefully.

To An Old Lover

There is silvery frost on your hair, old boy. There are lines on your forehead. But your clear eyes speak of the peace and joy.

That dwell in the heart of you. For the passing of youth you have no regret. No sighs for the summer gloom. And the lovers' moon. They are with you yet.

In the light of the lamp at home. In the summer of youth, in that sunny hour.

That will come to you never again. When you wooed your love as the bee the flower.

The sweets that you gathered then. You have hived and stored for your later life.

And your heart is the honeycomb—Ah! I've seen your face when you kissed your wife.

In the light of the lamp at home. Oh, you rare old lover! Oh, faithful knight.

With your sweetheart of long ago. You are many days from the warmth and light.

Of the summers you used to know. But you need not yearn for the glimmer of the fields you were wont to roam.

Oh, the light for the hearts that are in the light of the lamp at home. —Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

BEST LIVER AND BOWEL LAXATIVE FOR FAMILY USE

"Cascarets" regulate women, men and children without injury.

Take when bilious, headachy, for colds, bad breath, sour stomach.

WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous cathartics, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon to give a good bowel and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, headache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give Cascarets, sick, teething or bilious children a whole Cascarets any time—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

100 PRIESTS PRESENT

Fr. Gilbride of Collinsville Assists at Funeral of Rev. Patrick H. Billings at Arlington

ARLINGTON, March 10.—St. Bridget's church was filled yesterday morning at the solemn high mass for the pastor, Rev. Fr. Patrick H. Billings, who died Tuesday. Rev. James O. Hamilton of Whitman, an intimate friend of Fr. Billings for many years, was celebrant. Fr. E. J. Ryan of Rockland was deacon, Fr. Thomas E. Brennan of Rockton, sub-deacon, and Rev. J. J. O'Connell of Watertown, a former curate under Fr. Billings, master of ceremonies. Rev. Edward Kenney of Rockton, and Rev. Fr. Mackey of Rockton, were also present.

Said to be the sanctuary were 100 priests. The eulogy was pronounced by Rev. Fr. Brennan. The priests, chosen of 25 voices from the Boston diocese, sang.

Reserved sections were occupied by members of the Holy Name society, the Married and Young Men's Catholic League association, Division 2, A.O.U., and Catholic Foresters.

But it was in the family lot in Collinsville, Mass., that the bereaved were gathered. William A. Wheeler, a former pastor of St. Bridget's, was a brother-in-law of Fr. Billings. Fr. Billings was a native of Collinsville, and was a member of the Holy Name society, the Married and Young Men's Catholic League association, Division 2, A.O.U., and Catholic Foresters.

SUFFRAGE BILL PASSES VERMONT HOUSE

MONTPELIER, Vt., March 10.—A bill allowing women taxpayers to vote on most appropriations and for all town officers except road commissioners at town meetings was passed yesterday by the lower branch of the state legislature. The vote was 61 to 59 and was hailed as a victory by the suffrage interests.

The bill now goes to the senate. A bill designed to bar physicians coming from foreign countries from practicing in this state was killed in the house of representatives yesterday.

BETTER THAN CORN ON COB

When the subject of sweet corn was mentioned, Mr. A. K. Kestead, head manager of Armour & Co., stated that as corn is one of the hardest vegetables to buy satisfactorily on the cob and as the novelty of eating off the cob is soon exhausted, most people prefer a good grade of canned corn. If they housewife buys the best and insists on always having it she is sure of the standard quality corn on her table.

Both tomatoes and green peppers mixed up with canned corn, covered with bread crumbs, baked are nice. If you use tomatoes, choose firm ones. These are skinned and you should scoop out the pulp from the stems, mix with salt and pepper and then put in the filling. The pepper is peeled before preparation. Cut off the stem end, remove the seeds, and parboil for three minutes in a quart of boiling water, to which has been added a pinch of soda. Lad these cool before filling.

ALDERMAN FINED

LEWISTON, Me., March 10.—Alderman John V. O'Connell of ward 2 was fined $10 and costs yesterday in the municipal court for assaulting T. N. Guine, proprietor of the New Adams House. It is alleged that O'Connell called at the Adams House and asked for a guest. The guest declined to meet him and Mr. Guine suggested him to leave, whereupon O'Connell assaulted him. It is charged. Alderman O'Connell appeared from the sentence and furnished security for his appearance in the supreme judicial court.

had taken part in a whist tournament between the Republican club, of which he was a member, and the Beverly lodge of Elks. He was taken ill during the play and died soon after on being taken home.

Mr. Edgett was born in Hillsboro, N. B., and was educated in the public schools at Essexport, Me. He came to Beverly in 1855. During the Civil war he served in the 23d Massachusetts regiment and was wounded at Cold Harbor. He was mustered out with the rank of captain.

Mr. Edgett entered the secretary of state's office in 1875. He was past master of Liberty lodge of Masons and past commander of Post 88, G.A.R. When Beverly was a town he served on the school board and the board of selectmen. Under the city government, he served ward 4 as alderman, and later was elected alderman-at-large. He leaves his wife, three daughters and a son.

1060 GORHAM STREET
John M. Plowden, Designer and Manager

THE SPELLBINDER

Mayor O'Donnell has not let up in his effort to bring about better car service conditions, and this week, having received many letters of complaint following the letter of Supt. Lees concerning the inability of the railway company to improve conditions on account of its lack of rolling stock, has written a letter to Mr. P. F. Sullivan, explaining the situation, and the nature of the complaints and asking the latter to assist the city of Lowell, if possible, in getting better conditions.

Among the Mayor's correspondents who complain of the present conditions is Herbert E. Webster, the well known resident of the Highlands and former president of the common council. Mr. Webster's letter is particularly "hot" and is given in part as follows:

"Commenting upon the letter of Mr. Thomas Lees—replying to your letter of Feb. 1, in which he makes statements intended to cover your points of query:

A—Shortcomings of company as brought out at hearing, etc., have been remedied insofar as it is possible to do so.

"Please note here a confession of incompetency.

B—Shortage of cars real cause of unsatisfactory service, conditions remain the same.

C—Once more note confession of incompetency. Reiterated confession thus places the remedy fairly in the hands of the citizens of Lowell.

"While I do not dispute the statement that effort has been made, I take decided objection to that portion which states that the conditions complained of have been remedied—a minute amelioration more aptly applies.

"On the Westford street line, the effort to concentrate the passenger traffic of four cars into two had been abandoned. This leads to the intolerable situation of overcrowding. A schedule accomplished at noon makes impossible a trip home and return, to one granted a limited dinner hour. Extra trips may have been added throughout the city, but the 'restless' in many cases are but restorations—literally no extras at all—simply a return to inadequate conditions prevailing before the strike was promulgated, presumably to put penance upon the Bay State patronage, because the corporation was refused by the public service commission, permission to establish a general six-cent fare.

"I ride on every line in and out of Lowell and if there are 16 borrowed cars in use I have failed to see them. On two separate occasions I have seen foreign cars, which leads me to believe that Mr. Lees borrowed one car a day for 16 days. Since your hearing, Mr. Mayor, I visited the Middlesex car barn at 5:30 p. m. on a Saturday. I believed that at this time every available car should be in service. I counted 23 cars, three of which were to be sent out. It was my desire to be sent out. I entered the office, inquired who was in charge, told him who I was and my mission. He informed me that three cars would go out in 10 minutes, the other three were 'in trouble' and that the 17 cars on the other side of Middlesex street were in the hospital, absolutely out of commission and nothing known definitely as to when they would be restored. I always believed that we had repair shops in Lowell and that they employed competent workmen to keep the rolling stock in running order. The Bay State Street railway confesses that it cannot do what the franchise demands it shall do. Mr. Mayor, the people of Lowell look to you to lead them out of bondage. The old grant to the Lowell Horse Railroad is mandatory, states just what the people of Lowell were to receive for surrendering their right of way—what should be done, and if not done, the penalty was therein engrossed. We owe no allegiance to the Bay State Street railway. They found a city ready-made that suited their desires and set about to encompass what they coveted. Not one dollar did the city receive when our street franchise was gobbled up. You, Mr. Mayor, have started something; go to it fearlessly—you have a new city solicitor—show him it should be his first duty to give back to the city and its people, rights usurped by this monopoly. Mr. Webster recommends municipal ownership of the local street railway organized under a charter in which the citizens shall be the stockholders.

Week of Conference

This has been a week of conference for two at least weeks, one taking several hours and developing some loud talk. The first conference was held in the office of Commissioner Morse on Wednesday at which the auditor and the clerk of the street department were present. As far as can be learned the meeting primarily was a result of an order given by Commissioner Donnelly of the finance department to the effect that all clerks from other departments desiring information from the auditor's office should go to it from the auditor or his clerk. This was followed, it is reported, by a duel of words between the auditor and the head clerk of the street department relative to the manner in which the auditor kept his accounts.

BIG ALLIED FREIGHTER REPORTED SUNK

NEW YORK, March 10.—A report was current in shipping circles today that the 8700-ton freight steamer Ohio, flying the French flag, had been torpedoed. The vessel left here Feb. 13 and was due in Havre today. The French line said they had no confirmation of the report but had cable information. The Ohio, one of the largest freighters in the allied service, was well armed.

U. S. STEEL ORDER BREAKS ALL RECORDS

NEW YORK, March 10.—The unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation on Feb. 28, were 11,576,497 tons, breaking all previous records. The figures showed an increase of 102,645 tons over the report for January 31 last.

The previous high record was that for Dec. 31, 1916 when the unfilled orders stood at 11,547,256 tons.

CHANCE TO "RAISE SPUDS"

WASHINGTON, March 10.—More than a million and a half acres of land, mostly nonirrigable, were designated under the Homestead act in February. Sec. Lane announced yesterday. Under this act, entrainment may acquire a homestead of 320 acres of land.

The states, with the approximate number of acres designated in each, are as follows: Arizona, 22,000; Colorado, 24,000; Idaho, 27; Kansas, 12,000; Montana, 187,000; New Mexico, 461,500; and North Dakota 541,500 acres.

The soldier in the picture, just in from the trenches, is enjoying a bowl of soup.

TIEUP OF AMERICAN STEAMSHIPS AND FREIGHT AT NEW YORK

AMERICAN LINE SHIPS HELD UP—AUTOS AWAITING EXPORT

American line steamships Koonland, Philadelphia, St. Louis and St. Paul, tied up at their piers in New York by the German submarine campaign, are shown in the upper picture. The lower one depicts a lot of American automobiles, ordered by the allied countries, awaiting shipment outside the steamship piers. The foreign freight congestion has grown so great that it was said a few days ago 300,000 tons had accumulated. This, of course, has been greatly increased since then. Foreign steamships take away some of the accumulation, but American ships have been held up by the uncertainty of the German-American situation.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Weather predictions for the North Atlantic states for the week beginning Sunday, March 11, issued by the weather bureau today are:

Overcast weather with rains, becoming fair after Monday. Near the end of the week rains are again probable. Colder weather on Monday night and Tuesday; moderate temperature latter half of week.

DUTCH STEAMER RAN ASHORE

HADIFAX, N. S., March 10.—The Dutch steamer American, which ran ashore of Sable Island last night while bound from Norfolk, Va., for Rotterdam, reported by radio today that she had turned back and was proceeding to New York. The steamer said the vessel was leaking forward and amidships but was in no danger.

LOWELL MASS. SATURDAY MARCH 10 1917

PRICE ONE CENT

largest seen in this city for a long time and was witnessed by hundreds of people, who lined the streets from the home of the deceased to the place of burial. The procession was composed of the four local companies of the National Guard, the Spanish War Veterans and delegations from the various organizations of which deceased was a member, and the Sixth Regiment band.

The funeral procession formed at the home of deceased, 17 Floyd street, and the Spanish War Veterans being on guard on either side of the street.

The formation of the procession was as follows: Sixth Regiment band, Z. I. Bissonnette, leader; firing squad of Company M, Major Kittredge in command; Companies M, C, G and K in command of Capt. Daniel E. Christian of Company M; officers of the Second battalion, Major Kittredge in command; Spanish War Veterans, Commander E. W. Chandler; delegations of the Bunting club, Emmet club and Lowell club of Eagles, the Commissioners Brown, Morse, Warnock and Donnelly were present, as was also Adj. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson.

Local past officers acted as a bodyguard in the rear of the hearse, while the active bearers, all members of Company M, marched on both sides of the hearse. The procession wound its way through Central street, Charles and Gorham streets, as far as the church, the band playing Chopin's funeral march.

At 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Peter's church, the large church was filled to its doors. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. P. L. Crayton, assisted by Rev. W. George Mullin as deacon and Rev. D. J. Heffernan as sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. D. J. Keleher, pastor, and Rev. Owen P. McQuade, O. M. L., the latter took the immaculate conception church. The choir, augmented for the occasion, rendered the Gregorian chant under the direction of James E. Donnelly. Miss Lulu Ginty presiding at the organ. The solos of the mass were sustained by Miss Gertrude Keleher and Mr. Donnelly. At the offertory Miss Keleher rendered Leysbach's "Pie Jesu" and at the elevation Mr. Donnelly sang "Domine Jesu Christe." At the close of the mass the choir rendered "De Profundis."

Rev. Dr. Keleher paid an eloquent tribute to the dead soldier for his service in the flag as proved by his service in the army, and for his Christian character. Next to the service of God, men are honored for serving their country in the cause of justice and right and he was glad to see the deceased soldier honored by the military comrades with whom he was associated in his country's service. The presence of the flag, he said, should be an inspiration to loyalty and patriotism, especially at this time when dangers of various kinds threaten the safety of this republic. He paid a glowing tribute to the flag, stating what it represents and how it should inspire young and old.

At the close of the service the procession was re-formed and wound its way to St. Patrick's cemetery, where burial took place in the family lot. At the grave taps were sounded by buglers.

GERMAN-MEXICO-JAPAN COMBINE
The Lowell Thrift club, now on the 12th week of its 50-week run, continues its weekly thrifting at the Middlesex Trust Co., corner Merrimack and Palmer streets. If you have a doubt, look in at the bank some Saturday evening. Members of the Lowell Thrift club are not worrying about the 1917 potato prices nor the price of meat next winter. When next December comes, if the father, the son, the brother or some one else's brother should be in the trenches fighting for their country, those who remain at home will be equipped to meet perplexity. People who joined the 1917 Lowell Thrift club will have reason to be glad and are sure to continue in the 1918 campaign. Those who did not join the 1917 army will do well to watch the working of this method of compulsory weekly savings. An officer of the Middlesex Trust Co. states that they are making plans to care for 5000 accounts in 1918. The same officer says: "We do not promise all things, but we keep all promises. Nothing can stop us but a German-Mex-Jap combine—and there isn't no such animal."

MUNICIPAL CONTROL OF FOOD SUPPLIES

DECISION REACHED AT EXTRA-ORDINARY CONFERENCE AT PETROGRAD

LONDON, March 10.—The management of all food supplies in the Petrograd district is to be placed in the hands of the municipal authorities. This decision was reached. Reuter's Petrograd correspondent telegraphs, at an extraordinary conference held yesterday to deal with the food problem at the capital which is said to be urgent. The Duma will be asked to vote the necessary extension of powers to enable the municipality to deal with the matter during the war.

During the discussion it was stated that there were reserves of five million bushels of grain in Petrograd and that sufficient fresh supplies were arriving.

JOHN M. FARRELL.....Auctioneer
OFFICE—162 MARKET ST., LOWELL, MASS.

Guardian's Sale of Real Estate

Wednesday, March 14, 1917, at 2 P. M.

By virtue of a license granted by the Probate Court, I will sell at public auction the Real Estate of the late William H. Parker, situated on the westerly side of Mt. Vernon street, at the corner of Varney street, consisting of a two-story house and barn and 17,004 square feet of land, more or less.

The house has parlor, sitting room, library, living room, dining room, kitchen, wash room with set tubs and boiler, and store room on the first floor. The second floor has five square sleeping rooms and bathroom. The house has front and back stairs, a good cellar, furnace heat, city water and gas.

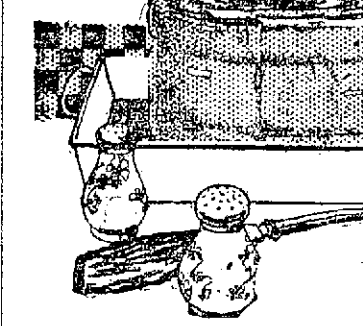

The barn has stalls for three horses, a large loft and storage room for carriages.

The house sets on a high elevation and has a lawn all around it. There is a granite wall around the lot on both streets.

This is a very desirable piece of real estate and would make a good home or a good investment, as it is a piece of property that can be improved to advantage.

Terms of sale: $200 must be paid at time and place of sale; other terms at sale.

GEORGE A. MUELLER,
Guardian of Elizabeth D. Parker.

RULES THAT AMERICAN SHIPS CAN FIRE ON U-BOATS AT SIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The mere appearance of a German submarine or its periscope in the presence of an American armed merchant vessel would entitle that ship, according to state department opinion today, to take all measures of protection on the presumption that the U-boat's purpose was hostile. Under this ruling an American armed merchantman could fire on a German submarine the moment it is sighted without being considered as taking aggressive action. This view is based on Germany's declared intention to sink all ships with certain zones all vessels, neutrals as well as belligerent, and whether passenger vessels, freighters or contraband carriers.

Stands Flatly on Warning

The United States said to stand flatly on its armed merchantmen warning of March 27 last in which it definitely recognized "to prevent capture" as part of the "right of self protection" which could be exercised either by flight or resistance. The mere presence of a German submarine is declared ground for assuming hostile intent because of the deliberate statement by Germany that all vessels are to be sunk on sight. Denial by Germany of the old rule of visit and search makes all its U-boats actually hostile.

Oppose General Rule

Whether the government will issue any general rule for the guidance of American armed ship commanders is uncertain at present. Opposition to such action has been expressed on ground that the situation is now entirely clear, that in all events the action of the commander must depend on his judgment and the actual conditions prevailing and that the government does not wish to take any steps which might be construed as a deliberately hostile act by Germany.

Denial By Lansing

Reports that the state department was preparing a White Book of Germany's plots and intrigues in this country for presentation shortly either to the press or to the senate, were flatly denied by Secretary Lansing today. He said that no step was in contemplation and that no present end could be served by it.

The consensus of opinion in diplomatic quarters here today was that the action of the United States in arming its merchant shipping would in no way serve to change the policies of the several European neutral nations.

STARTLES COURTROOM BY SUGGESTING A TRIAL BY ORDEAL

Attorney for Four Persons Charged With Conspiring to Murder Lloyd George Refers to Medieval Form of Judicial Trial in Summing Up Case — Vigorous Speech in Behalf of Accused — Attacks Government for Failure to Call Mysterious Witness

LONDON, March 10.—In the course of an eloquent and vigorous speech today in summing up the case of the four prisoners on trial, charged with conspiring to murder Premier Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, member of the war council, S. R. Riza, the Mohammedan lawyer who is acting as attorney for the defendants, startled the courtroom by suggesting a trial by ordeal. He referred to the medieval form of judicial trial in which in place of evidence, supernatural aid is invoked as in a test by fire, water, poison or other agencies.

Attorney Riza has been endeavoring to impress the jury with the alleged sinister significance of the failure of the crown to produce a certain witness against the four defendants, Mrs. Alice Wheelodon, her two daughters, and Alfred George Mason, husband of one of the daughters. This person, he said, was a "man who should have been its principal witness, namely the mysterious secret government agent known as Gordon."

The attorney declared Gordon was a plot spy who had started the whole plot, and then when he had not them well within his net, had handed them over to another agent named Booth so that his own connection with the case would not be so flagrantly apparent.

"Why wasn't it possible for Gordon to come into court and face the jury?" asked the lawyer. "Because from him," he continued, "the jury would have drawn a very different version of the case. The case rests wholly on the evidence of Booth, who, moreover, was allowed to read the whole of his evidence. In the absence of this mysterious Gordon this trial is not a trial. "Before the jury commits the defendants, it should insist on the production of Gordon in the interest of the public and the safety of the country."

Then after a long and impressive pause, Attorney Riza suddenly said: "In the absence of Gordon I would suggest that the defendants should have a trial by ordeal."

The judge was puzzled and said: "I fear that would be impossible. It has been abolished. Do you seriously suggest the ladies should walk over hot ploughshares in order to prove their innocence?"

Riza: "I do."
The judge: "It is no use submitting such a suggestion. You are not serious?"
Riza: "I do seriously suggest it."

PLACE GUNS ON U.S. MERCHANT SHIPS

Action Puts United States in State of Armed, Neutrality—Regarded Preliminary of War—Preparations For Extra Session of Congress Called by President for April 16—Papers to Suppress News of Sailings

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Guns, gunners and ammunition will be placed aboard American merchant ships immediately.

Navy yards were ordered today to equip the vessels as fast as possible and the action will put the United States in the position of armed neutrality, the next step beyond the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany, and possibly the preliminary of war. What ships are to be armed first, and when they will sail, will be kept secret in order to avoid endangering the lives of Americans aboard them.

Extra Session April 16

President Wilson issued the necessary orders yesterday in the belief that he has ample executive power without special authorization from congress. Simultaneously, however, he called congress to meet in special session April 16 to be in position to support him if necessary.

Preparations for defending American merchant vessels already had been taken by the government and actual work of equipping the vessels only awaited the navy department's approval of applications from ship owners. In the various navy yards along the Atlantic coast are stored guns, ammunition and other necessary equipment ready for installation.

To Heed Daniels' Appeal
In official circles today confidence was expressed that Secretary Daniels' appeal to newspapers not to seek nor publish specific news of the arming and sailing of American merchantmen would be observed. A similar appeal was made to telegraph and cable companies.

The best news the readers can have," said the secretary, "is that the government will protect the rights of America to the freedom of the seas. The publication of details can serve no good purpose and might jeopardize human life."

SHIPPING MEN TO CO-OPERATE WITH DANIELS

NEW YORK, March 10.—Shipping men here agree with Secretary Daniels of the navy department that information concerning the arming and sailing of citizen volunteers to supplement the police department as a home defense league, somewhat on the lines adopted in New York. He would have such a body act as an auxiliary to the police and under police direction, especially for night patrol duty.

SPECIAL ELECTION IN NEW YORK
NEW YORK, March 10.—Gov. Whitman announced today that next Monday he will call a special election in the fifth congressional district to select a successor to Michael F. Conry, deceased.

CITY SOLICITOR TAKES STEPS TO RECOVER INTEREST MONEY

The first step toward the recovery of the $29,400 interest money, which is alleged to be due the city from the Lowell Trust Co., was taken today when a writ was issued from the office of the city solicitor and placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff for serving. The writ probably will be served on the trust company this afternoon.

The ad damnum named in the writ is $40,000 and the writ is returnable on the first Monday in April in the superior court at Cambridge.

About ten days ago the municipal council by vote authorized the city solicitor to take the necessary steps toward the recovery of the alleged interest money, and City Solicitor Regan has been working on the case since that time.

Monthly Bills Approved

Monthly bills were approved by the members of the municipal council this noon. Mayor O'Donnell looked over the bills earlier in the forenoon, but as one or two of the commissioners attended the funeral of Major McNulty, the bills were not approved by the rest of the council until 12 o'clock.

8 OFFICERS OF GERMAN SHIP SENTENCED

FLORENCE, S. C., March 10.—Eight officers of the German steamship Liebenfels, sunk in Charleston harbor on the night of Jan. 31 last, today were sentenced to a year in the Atlanta federal penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500 each. They were convicted yesterday of sinking a vessel in a navigable stream in violation of the navigation laws. Bond was fixed at $5000 in each case which the defendants were not immediately able to give. While efforts were being made to arrange for bonds, the prisoners were kept in the federal courthouse under guard.

The defense gave notice of an appeal. Nine officers of the vessel were indicted, but as Capt. Klatschke was ill in Charleston, his case was postponed.

PROGRAM OF SHIP BUILDING IN CANADA

MONTREAL, March 10.—Plans declared to be well advanced in England and certain of completion call for an extensive program of ship-building in Canada during and after the war, according to advices received here today from London.

Shipyards in the Dominion all are to be utilized, through the imperial munitions board for the construction of steel steamships of great carrying capacity, with new shipbuilding industry to be established on a large scale, the advices say.

There is reason to believe that, with the available resources of raw material, there may be developed in the Dominion a steel shipbuilding industry equalling in extent the vast enterprise of the munition business.

Off Canada proves equal to the situation as it has done in the munition line, an industry of immense proportions may be built up.

It is believed here that this scheme is one which Sir Robert Borden hoped to get initiated before he left Canada for England.

LONDON, March 10, 4:35 p. m.—Official information was received here today that the Norwegian relief ship, which had one American citizen on board, has been sunk by a submarine.

Twenty members of the crew, including the American, have been landed. One member of the crew and one of the American have been missing. It is stated officially that the Stord was flying the flag of the American commission for relief in Belgium and bore the marking designated for the relief ships.

The London office of the commission states that the Stord carried 10,000 tons of grain which was needed badly in Belgium, where the shortage as a result of the detention of grain cargoes will soon be felt severely.

The Stord was ordered to leave Las Palmas on Feb. 28. She had a coal at Gibraltar and her master was instructed to proceed to Rotterdam by the northerly route.

APPEALS DECISION TO INCREASE FARES

CITY OF FALL RIVER WANTS RIDES FOR 25 CENTS TO BE RESTORED

BOSTON, March 10.—The city of Fall River, through James H. Kay, its mayor and William C. Gray, president of the board of aldermen, today appealed to the supreme court from a recent decision of the public service commission allowing the Bay State Street Railway Co. to charge a straight five-cent fare, instead of selling six tickets for 25 cents as formerly. No date was set for a hearing. The city sets forth that one of the conditions in the franchise granted to the company in 1897 was that strips of tickets, good for six rides within the city limits should be sold by the company for 25 cents. The contention is made that the order of the commission impairs that contract and violates the city's constitutional rights.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINER SAYS 20 PER CENT OF PAPERS REJECTED BECAUSE OF WRITING

BOSTON, March 10.—Dr. Joseph J. Reilly, chief examiner of the Massachusetts civil service commission, declared in an address before the New England division of the Penmanship Teachers' association today, that 20 per cent of the examination papers received by the commission are rejected because of illegible handwriting. Other speakers urged that closer attention be paid to penmanship in the public schools. William E. Riley, of the state normal school at Lowell, presided.

details of which can be obtained from the headquarters of the Marine corps in Washington. The consequence of the Marine corps has made it known that it is especially desirous of filling the vacancies with young men of good physique and education and it is especially desired that graduates of recognized colleges and universities shall participate in the examination. The examination at the state of Massachusetts will be held at Boston and Springfield.

Scarcity of Beans

Curb your bean appetite and eat fishballs! Not only has the price of beans risen to more than three times what it was a year ago, but there are not nearly enough in the country to go round. The crop ran short and at the same time the boys in the trenches found the Boston baked beans both filling and sustaining, and there is no second helping. So stay-at-homes, if you government keep your wheat, coal and other necessities, so is no guesswork to state that the people of the United States eat eleven million bushels of dry beans each year—that is when they can get them. This year only nine million bushels were raised, and of that amount the beans exported at the rate of three million bushels so but six million bushels of the famous Boston baked beans were left to satisfy the appetite and stomatic capacity for consuming million bushels.

Garden Seeds.

Since the word has gone out, "Make your own garden," members of our society have had more than ten times the usual number of requests for seeds. One Massachusetts member this week received a letter from a correspondent asking for enough potatoes to plant an acre of land, although none of the requests do not ask for quite such a liberal distribution. One thing is very certain, the seeds allotted for distribution this year will not hold out, if the increased demand continues.

ons of the sea do all sorts of stunts in a very brilliant way. May Stavin, the main comedienne in the cast, and her partner, in a wicker chair and chatter is another sure fire hit while Walker and Hill have a comedy act in which they play a waiter and Wiley and Wiley, two boys "going to beat the band." The photo plays are the latest in comedy and drama. The picture is a new challenge for both performances and the who can conveniently do so, should attend the matinee performance.

Next week start with special lion bat matinee on Monday, the Emerson players will present Oliver M. Kendall's "The Great American Musical Comedy" which comes direct from a great run at the Fulton Theatre, New York City. Mr. Clay Clement of Motion Pictures and stock star of prominence will make his first appearance with the Emerson players and he is certain to score a tremendous hit.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Jack Westerman and his Mer Makers presented that musical comedy "I Were King" before two good sized throngs of patrons. Yesterday and will repeat the performance today. Jack Westerman a one of the best comedians in the states at the present time and he is surrounded by a clever company comedians, good singers and a good sized chorus of extras. One of the features of the show is the wonderful performance of the Darling Sisters, the greatest aerial act in town.

Sunday afternoon and evening shows will be given the usual Sunday evenings, which include a good sized chorus with several sets of moving pictures.

The attraction next week will include a new musical comedy headed by that wonderful comedienne, May Stavin, who is positively and indisputably the best Hebrew comedienne in musical comedy.

Among those who will appear will

The closing performances of the latter-half-of-the-week bill will be presented at the Merrinack Square theatre at the two performances this evening. It will be following sound advice to witness this bill which presents Blanche Sweet in the charming role of a southern maid dining "O' war time in the five act feature "Those Without Sin," and Ethel Clayton, one of the best dressed women on the screen in her five act success, "The Web of Vester." Both plays as well as the stars are exceptional and are well worth seeing. The Travel pictures and other plays will also be shown this evening. Tomorrow a splendid continuous Sunday concert featuring Mae Murray will be presented. Miss Murray who always makes a hit in her every role will soon to advantage in the leading role of the entertaining five act drama

$15.00 a Week for Jingles

Send in as many Four-line Jingles as you choose for each Saturday from now to April 7th. THE SUN will pay 50c each for the best Jingles sent to take the place of these next Saturday. You can compete for one firm or all with as many Jingles as you wish to send. Write only ONE FOUR LINE Jingle on a sheet. Put the letter or emblem, the firm you write for uses, in the upper left hand corner. Sign an assumed name or initials. Put your real name and address on a separate sheet. Use the same name or initials during the contest. Study the Firms' Advertisements. Write a Jingle with rhythm advertising the Merchant. These Jingles will be handed to the Merchants for whom they are written. The one he considers the best will be published with the name or initials used by the winner in the place of the one now in. In this way the Jingles will be changed weekly. Write only for the firms advertising below. Remember—only ONE Jingle on a sheet. Checks will be mailed the winners the week following publication. Jingles must be at THE SUN Office by the First Mail on each Wednesday Morning. Read these Jingles—Get the Idea—write some each week. ADDRESS, JENNY WREN. Jingle Contest, Sun Office, Lowell, Mass.

RULES THAT AMERICAN SHIPS CAN FIRE ON U-BOATS AT SIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The mere appearance of a German submarine or its periscope in the presence of an American armed merchant vessel would entitle that ship, according to state department opinion today, to take all measures of protection on the presumption that the U-boat's purpose was hostile. Under this ruling, an American armed merchantman could fire on a German submarine the moment it is sighted without being considered as taking aggressive action. This view is based on Germany's declared intention to sink on sight within certain zones all vessels, neutrals as well as belligerent, and whether passenger vessels, freighters or contraband carriers.

Stands Flatly on Warning

The United States was said to stand flatly on its armed merchantmen warning of March 27 last in which it deliberately recognized "to prevent capture" as part of the "right of self protection" which could be exercised either by flight or resistance. The mere presence of a German submarine is declared ground for assuming hostile intent because of the deliberate statement by Germany that all vessels are to be sunk on sight. Denial by Germany of the old rule of visit and search makes all its U-boats actually hostile.

Oppose General Rule

Whether the government will issue any general rule for the guidance of American armed ship commanders is uncertain at present. Opposition to such action has been expressed on ground that the situation is now entirely clear, that in all events the action of the commander must depend on his judgment and the actual conditions prevailing and that the government does not wish to take any steps which might be construed as a deliberately hostile act by Germany.

Denial By Lansing

Reports that the state department was preparing a White Book of Germany's plots and intrigues in this country for presentation shortly either to the press or to the senate, were flatly denied by Secretary Lansing today. He said that no step was in contemplation and that no present end could be served by it.

The consensus of opinion in diplomatic quarters here today was that the action of the United States in arming its merchant shipping would in no way serve to change the policies of the general European neutral nations.

FOUND GUILTY OF
PLOT TO MURDER
LLOYD GEORGE

Attorney for Four Persons Charged
With Conspiring to Murder Lloyd
George Startled Courtroom by Suggesting a Trial by Ordeal

LONDON, March 10.—Mrs. Alice Wheeldon, her daughter, Mrs. Winifred Mason, and the latter's husband, Alfred George Mason, were found guilty today of conspiracy to murder Premier Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, member of the war council. Miss Harriet Ann Wheeldon, another daughter of Mrs. Wheeldon, who also was tried on the same charge, was acquitted. Mrs. Wheeldon was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude. A sentence of 7 years was imposed upon Alfred Mason, while his wife was given 5 years' penal servitude.

PLEAD FOR DEFENDANTS

LONDON, March 10.—In the course of an eloquent and vigorous speech today in summing up the case of the four prisoners on trial, charged with conspiring to murder Premier Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, member of the war council, S. H. Riza, the Mohammedan lawyer who is acting as attorney for the defendants, startled the courtroom by suggesting a trial by ordeal. He referred to the medieval form of judicial trial in which place of evidence, supernatural aid is invoked as in a test by fire, water, poison or other agencies.

Attorney Riza has been endeavoring to impress the jury with the sinister significance of the failure of the crown to produce a certain witness against the four defendants. Mrs. Alice Wheeldon, her two daughters, and Alfred George Mason, husband of one of the daughters. This person, he said, was a "man who should have been its principal witness, namely the mysterious secret government agent known as Gordon."

The attorney declared Gordon was a police spy who had started the whole plot, who had lured the defendants on, and then when he had not them well within his net, had handed them over to another agent named Booth so that his own connection with the case would not be so flagrantly apparent.

"Why wasn't it possible for Gordon to come into court and face the jury?" asked the lawyer. "Because from him," he continued, "the jury would have drawn a very different version of the case. The case rests wholly on the evidence of Booth, who, moreover, was allowed to read the whole of his evidence. In the absence of this mysterious Gordon this trial is not a trial."

"Before the jury commits the defendants, it should insist on the production of Gordon in the interest of the public and the safety of the country."

Then after a long and impressive pause, Attorney Riza suddenly said: "In the absence of Gordon I would suggest that the defendants should have a trial by ordeal."

The judge was puzzled and said: "I fear that would be impossible. It has been abolished. Do you seriously suggest the ladies should walk over hot ploughshares in order to prove their innocence?"

Riza: "I do."

The judge: "It is no use submitting such a suggestion. You are not serious?"

Riza: "I do seriously suggest it."

Action Puts United States in State of Armed Neutrality—Regarded Preliminary of War—Preparations For Extra Session of Congress Called by President for April 16—Papers to Suppress News of Sailings

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Guns, gunners and ammunition will be placed aboard American merchant ships immediately.

Navy yards were ordered today to equip the vessels as fast as possible and the action will put the United States in the position of armed neutrality, the next step beyond the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany, and possibly the preliminary of war. What ships are to be armed first, and when they will sail, will be kept secret in order to avoid endangering the lives of Americans aboard them.

Extra Session April 16

President Wilson issued the necessary orders yesterday in the belief that he has ample executive power without special authorization from congress. Simultaneously, however, he called congress to meet in special session April 16 to be in position to support him if necessary.

Preparations for defending American merchant vessels already had been taken by the government and actual work of equipping the vessels only awaited the navy department's approval of applications from ship owners. In the various navy yards along the Atlantic coast are stored guns, munitions and other necessary equipment ready for installation.

To Heed Daniels' Appeal

In official circles today confidence was expressed that Secretary Daniels' appeal to newspapers not to seek nor publish specific news of the arming and sailing of American merchantmen would be observed. A similar appeal was made to telegraph and cable companies.

"The best news the readers can have," said the secretary, "is that the government will protect the rights of America to the freedom of the seas. The publication of details can serve no good purpose and might jeopardize human life."

REP. SULLOWAY IS VERY SERIOUSLY ILL

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Representative Cyrus Sulloway, the veteran republican member of Manchester, New Hampshire, who is ill with pneumonia, still was in a serious condition today.

Shortly after noon, Representative Sulloway's physician said he was sinking rapidly and that he might not live through the day. His colleague, Representative Watson of Nashua, N. H., was summoned and relatives notified of his critical condition.

VOLUNTEERS FOR HOME
DEFENSE LEAGUE

SPRINGFIELD, March 10.—Chief of Police W. J. Quilly in a statement today urged the immediate need of a body of citizen volunteers to supplement the police department as a home defense league, somewhat on the lines adopted in New York. He would have such a body act as an auxiliary to the police and under police direction, especially for night patrol duty.

SPECIAL ELECTION IN NEW YORK
NEW YORK, March 10.—Gov. Whitman announced today that next Monday he will call a special election in the 14th congressional district to select a successor to Michael F. Conry, deceased.

CITY SOLICITOR TAKES
STEPS TO RECOVER
INTEREST MONEY

The first step toward the recovery of the $3,000 interest money, which it is alleged is due the city from the Lowell Trust Co., was taken today, when a writ was issued from the office of the city solicitor and placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff for serving. The writ probably will be served on the trust company this afternoon.

The ad damnum named in the writ is $40,000 and the writ is returnable on the first Monday in April in the superior court at Cambridge.

About ten days ago the municipal council by vote authorized the city solicitor to take the necessary steps toward the recovery of the interest money, and City Solicitor Regan has been working on the case since that time.

Monthly Bills Approved

Monthly bills were approved by the members of the municipal council this noon. Mayor O'Donnell, in over the bills earlier in the day, but as one or two of the council members attended the funeral of McNulty, the bills were not approved by the rest of the council until 1 o'clock.

8 OFFICERS OF RELIEF SHIP WITH GERMAN SHIP
SENTENCED

FLORENCE, S. C., March 10.—Eight officers of the German steamship Liebenfels, sunk in Charleston harbor on the night of Jan. 31 last, today were sentenced to a year in the Atlanta federal penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500 each. They were convicted yesterday of sinking a vessel in a navigable stream in violation of the navigation laws. Bond was fixed at $5000 in each case which the defendants were not immediately able to give. While efforts were being made to arrange for bonds, the prisoners were kept in the federal courthouse under guard.

The defense gave notice of an appeal. Nine officers of the vessel were indicted, but as Capt. Klatschhoff was ill in Charleston, his case was postponed.

PROGRAM OF SHIP
BUILDING IN CANADA

MONTREAL, March 10.—Plans declared to be well advanced in England and certain of completion call for an extensive program of ship-building in Canada during and after the war, according to advices received here today from London.

Shipyards in the Dominion all are to be utilized, through the imperial munitions board for the construction of steel steamships of great carrying capacity, with new shipbuilding industries to be established on a large scale, the advices say.

There is reason to believe that, with the available resources of raw material, there may be developed in the Dominion a steel shipbuilding industry equalling in extent the vast enterprise of the munition business.

"If Canada proves equal to the situation as it has done in the munition line, an industry of immense proportions may be built up."

It is believed here that this scheme is one which Sir Robert Borden hoped to see initiated before he left Canada for England.

LONDON, March 10, 4:35 p. m.—Official information was received here today to the effect that the Norwegian steamer Storstad, a Belgian relief ship which had one American citizen on board, had been sunk by a submarine. Twenty members of the crew, including the American, have been landed. One member of the crew died from exposure and others are missing. It is stated officially that the Storstad was found the flag of the American commission for relief in Belgium and bore the marking designated for the relief ships.

The London office of the commission states that the Storstad carried 10,000 tons maize which was needed badly in Belgium, where the shortage as a result of the detention of grain cargoes will soon be felt severely.

The Storstad was ordered to leave Las Palmas on Feb. 26. She took coal at Gibraltar and her master was instructed to proceed to Rotterdam by the northern route.

APPEALS DECISION TO INCREASE FARES

CITY OF FALL RIVER WANTS 6
RIDES FOR 25 CENTS TO BE RE-STORED

BOSTON, March 10.—The city of Fall River, through James H. Kay, its mayor and William C. Gray, president of the board of aldermen, today appealed to the supreme court from a recent decision of the public service commission allowing the Bay State Street Railway Co. to charge a straight five-cent fare, instead of selling six tickets for 25 cents as formerly. No date was set for a hearing. The city sets forth that one of the conditions in the franchise granted to the company in 1897 was that fares of tickets, and the six rides within the city limits should be sold by the company for 25 cents. The contention is made that the order of the commission impairs that contract and violates the city's constitutional rights.

Other speakers urged that closer attention be paid to penmanship in the public schools. William E. Riley, of the state normal school at Lowell, presided.

WASHINGTON LETTER BY SUN CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The echo of inauguration has not yet passed. Thousands of flags still float from public buildings and the reviewing stands remain as evidence of the parade from Capitol to White House. The president is ill and confined to his room with a severe cold and said to feel keenly the reaction of the strenuous week just ended. Already the 65th congress is well under way with the extra session of the senate in stirring debate and facing another jam of bills as soon as the house is also called into session. The sentiment is strong here that congress should be in session during these critical international times and be on hand ready to share the burden.

The closing scenes of the 64th congress were unusual. Those of the senate for the intense bitterness and recrimination which marked the failure to pass the president's bill carrying an appropriation of $115,000,000 and giving the president the power now held by congress of assuming absolute authority regarding a proposed peace or war policy. In the house it was the other extreme and the end of the session was marked by a wonderful blending of sentiment and jollity. In both instances the scene was intensely dramatic. In the senate men battled for the right to stand by whichever side of the question they believed to be for the safety and interest of the nation.

In the house it was tremendously impressive to look down from the gallery on hundreds of men—many of them of nation-wide note—watch them say good-bye; hear them sing in one grand chorus, "God be with you till we meet again;" see the stars and stripes wave over their heads while they sing the national anthem in the chorus of which the thousands in the galleries joined with fervor. Conry of New York, a very dearly loved member of the house, died the night before, and many a man brushed away tears as the throng softly sang "There Will Be One Vacant Chair" for "twas Conry who always led the Swan Songs of the house at the end of each congress in his fine strong tenor voice. And now Conry is dead and they sang his requiem. Then came old-time melodies and gradually a return to the gaiety which marked the end. Everybody clapped his neighbor on the back, congratulated the come-backs and wished the lame ducks better luck next time. But in the senate there was neither time nor taste for laughter. It was grappling with the most serious issue for many years. Each faction was ready to sacrifice itself on the altar of public opinion for what it believed right. Lafayette's speech was smothered and the charges ended with a demagogic senator holding the floor. The democrats had put Senator Robinson in the chair, and did not dare make the change back to either the vice president or the president pro tempore, fearing a slip-up in their determination that the debate should end with Hitchcock as speaker. So the 64th congress was brought to a close by a senator called from the floor, although both the officers whose proper function to announce adjournment were on hand. Such an instance is said to be previously unknown in senate annals.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the press agents of the theatres mentioned.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Libonati, the king of xylophonists, will hold forth at the B. F. Keith theatre tonight afternoon and evening, and he will give an entirely new program of popular melodies—the kind that just proves irresistible. But, in addition to this popular music, there will also be the program: Northland and Ward, in their potpourri of songs and conversation; Valmont & Reynard, in operatic numbers; Pistol & Cushing, old-time singers; Tibbels' trained seals, and Johnson & Kleber, instrumentalists.

German Examined Motor Boats

It is impossible to obtain direct information regarding the intention of the government to utilize the motor boat squadron for searching for submarines, but there is strong reason to believe the fleet of motor boats already enrolled in the squadron are undergoing a pretty thorough examination as to their fitness for such service. A bill passed congress last summer authorizing the use of a special flag for the squadron and it was then understood that such boats would be utilized as a sort of auxiliary naval force in case of need. It has also come to light that some of the supposed government examinations made of motor boats has been under the guise of a wolf in sheep's clothing, and were not official, but made from the enemy's camp in order to ascertain the strength of the motor boat movement. This was found to be the case in several instances along the southern coast line.

Carline Corps Vacancies

Approximately 180 vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant in the Marine Corps are soon to be filled. The candidates can be graduates of the Naval academy, non-commissioned officers of the Marine Corps of taken from civil life. The brigadier general of the Marine Corps states that about 50 will probably be appointed from the two first mentioned classes, leaving 130 vacancies to be filled from civil life. It is proposed to hold an examination of candidates of the latter class on or about July 10 next. The

Scarcity of Beans

Curly your bean appetite and eat fishbait! Not only has the price of beans risen to more than three times what it was a few years ago, but there are not beans enough in the country to go round. The crop run short and at the same time the boys in the trenches found the Boston baked beans both filling and sustaining, and there is no second helping left for stay-at-homes. The government keeps strict tabs on beans just as it does wheat, coal and other necessities, so it is no guesswork to state that the people of the United States eat eleven million bushels of dry beans each year—that is when they can get them. This year only nine million bushels were raised and of that amount they were exported at the rate of three million bushels so but six million bushels of the famous Boston baked beans were left to satisfy the appetite and stomach capacity for consuming 11 million bushels.

Garden Seeds

Since the word has gone out, "Make your own garden," members of Congress have had more than ten times the usual number of requests for free seeds. One Massachusetts member this week received a letter from a constituent asking for enough potatoes to plant an acre of land, although most of the requests do not ask for quite such a liberal distribution. One thing seems certain, the seeds allotted for distribution this year will not hold out, if the increased demand continues.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

The following notices are from the press agents of the theatres mentioned.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Libonati, the king of xylophonists, will hold forth at the B. F. Keith theatre tonight afternoon and evening, and he will give an entirely new program of popular melodies—the kind that just proves irresistible. But, in addition to this popular music, there will also be the program: Northland and Ward, in their potpourri of songs and conversation; Valmont & Reynard, in operatic numbers; Pistol & Cushing, old-time singers; Tibbels' trained seals, and Johnson & Kleber, instrumentalists.

German Examined Motor Boats

It is impossible to obtain direct information regarding the intention of the government to utilize the motor boat squadron for searching for submarines, but there is strong reason to believe the fleet of motor boats already enrolled in the squadron are undergoing a pretty thorough examination as to their fitness for such service. A bill passed congress last summer authorizing the use of a special flag for the squadron and it was then understood that such boats would be utilized as a sort of auxiliary naval force in case of need. It has also come to light that some of the supposed government examinations made of motor boats has been under the guise of a wolf in sheep's clothing, and were not official, but made from the enemy's camp in order to ascertain the strength of the motor boat movement. This was found to be the case in several instances along the southern coast line.

Carline Corps Vacancies
Approximately 180 vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant in the Marine Corps are soon to be filled. The candidates can be graduates of the Naval academy, non-commissioned officers of the Marine Corps of taken from civil life. The brigadier general of the Marine Corps states that about 50 will probably be appointed from the two first mentioned classes, leaving 130 vacancies to be filled from civil life. It is proposed to hold an examination of candidates of the latter class on or about July 10 next. The mentalists. A number of good motion pictures will likewise be shown. A bill of surprises will be offered to the patrons of the theatre next week, when a show of headline acts will be presented. "Rocking the Boat," a gay-hearted sketch, in which Eva Taylor, Lawrence Gratton & Co. appear, is one of the very best skits in vaudeville. The sea on which the boat is tossing is the sea of matrimony and while a real boat is used in the act, it is, after all, rather a metaphorical one. The act was once written by Miss Taylor, and she has one of the leading roles in it. Clark & Verdi, who portray Italian immigrants, will score a knock-out with their work. One of the immigrants is in the customs of this country, but the other is the veriest ignoramus. How the very wise one tells the innocent brother about this great land takes hundreds of laughs. A monologist of the "fruit" variety is Joe Tibbels, whose sole mission in life is to provide laughter. How Joe accomplishes his feat isn't divulged, but it is said to be a novel way. "The Dream Garden" is an effective musical offering, participated in by six young women. The company work is decidedly fine. Martinotti & Sylvester, called "the boys with the chairs," provide a novelty in acrobatics. They take the most astounding falls and bumps, but come up smiling. Natalie Morgan has both beauty and talent, and her voice is a sweet soprano. Never a Klappel mix up comedy with singing and dancing. The Pathe News pictures will be shown at every performance, and a complete change of them will come on Thursday.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

This evening will be the last chance of the theatre folks of Lowell to see "The Battle Cry of Peace," a dramatic military play which is the offering of the Emerson Players at the Opera House. Sunday afternoon and night at the Opera House, an exceptionally good program of vaudeville and picture features will be offered, the management having secured five very brilliant acts. Lane, Plant and Timmons in a novelty, rather scintillating and sure to make one of the biggest hits of the season. These three boys, with a piano uncock many new song hits and their comedy is first class. Another act that is certain to score, a tremendous hit is Wastika and Understudy, a pair of wonderful seals in a sensational act. These clever warriers of the sea do all sorts of stunts in a truly brilliant manner. Maynard, the dynamic comedienne in songs and chatter is another sure fire hit while Walker and Jill have a comedy offering of bubbles over with laughter and Wiley and Wiley, two boys, "sing to beat the band." The photographs are the latest in comedy and dramatic features. Seats are now selling at the Opera House, an exceptionally good program of vaudeville and picture features will be offered, the management having secured five very brilliant acts. The throttling of neutral shipping both British and German experts have stated to be the most serious result of the German campaign to date and to have exceeded in effects the actual amount of tonnage destroyed.

Several German authorities have indicated that so long as they could terrorize neutral vessels and continue their attention on British shipping, the eventual starvation of England was certain.

BUILDING OPERATIONS LIGHT THIS WEEK

Owing probably to the storm, this week has been a very quiet one in the building line, and as a matter of fact practically all building operations were suspended for a few days. Yesterday, however, most of the work was resumed and this morning everything was reported as being in full swing.

The building permits issued at the office of the inspector of buildings during the week amount to about $20,000. They were as follows:

RECALL PAPERS ARE OUT IN HAVERHILL

PETITIONS IN CIRCULATION AGAINST MAYOR LESLIE K. MORSE AND ALDERMAN R.O.

HAVERHILL, March 10.—About 100 papers, it is said, were circulated in the city yesterday for the recall of Mayor Leslie K. Morse and Alderman W. H. Root.

The first set of papers, it is reported, appeared at the home of the Haverhill Lodge of Moose, West street, during the annual election of the lodge. The papers of the recall were dismissed by the lodge officials because of house rules governing such canvassing.

Who is behind the circulation of the papers is not known. The men who carried them yesterday were said to be in the employ of "men higher up."

To make the petition effective 2000 signatures, or 25 per cent of the vote at the recent election, are required. An effort is being made to get the signatures within a week.

THAT JAR OF MUSTEROLE ON THE BATH-ROOM SHELF

Relieved Pain for Every One in the Family

When little Susie had the croup; when Johnny got his feet wet and caught cold; when father sprained his knee; when granny's rheumatism bothered her—That jar of Musterole was right there to give relief and comfort.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It will not blister like a mustard plaster.

Quick relief for sore throat, bronchitis, lumbago, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or limbs, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Try Musterole for croupy children.

PRICE OF STEEL ADVANCED

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 10.—Complications of the advances in the price of finished steel as announced by Pittsburgh mills the past few days show the following increases: Merchant bars $7 a ton to $3.33 per hundred pounds; structural shapes $3 to $3.50 per hundred pounds; plates $15 to $4.50 per hundred pounds. Light rails were advanced $5 a ton. The market authorities declare, is sold to the limit, with the exception of government requirements. Such orders, whether placed or to be placed, take precedence over all others and prices bear no regular regulation to prices named for the open market.

ARTISTIC AND WELL ARRANGED

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH

This design is admired both for its exterior attractiveness and interior arrangement. The cozy little breakfast nook off the kitchen, with its built-in seats and table and three windows, is a novel feature. The living room has a big fireplace. Off from the dining room is a spacious dining porch. On the second floor there are three good sized bedrooms and bath. There is a large linen closet in the bathroom and abundant closet space off. The first chambers. Size 12 feet wide by 12 feet deep over the main part. The first room is 9 feet wide by 12 feet deep and the kitchen, pantry, bedrooms and bath in pine to paint or enamel. This plan cost to build about $3600, exclusive of heating and plumbing.

CALLS COUNT ZEPPELIN'S FAME IMMORTAL

KAISER SAYS WHOLE GERMAN PEOPLE IN MOURNING—SENDS CONDOLENCE TO WIDOW

AMSTERDAM, via London, March 10.—Emperor William, says a Berlin dispatch, has sent the following telegram of condolence to Countess Zeppelin:

"With deep regret I have just learned of the death of your husband, General of Cavalry Count Zeppelin. I personally feel most painfully the death of this excellent man, distinguished by rare gifts of genius and of the heart. The whole German people stands with me in mourning at the loss of one of the greatest sons of the Fatherland.

"In the tenacious, indefatigable struggle for the mastery of the air he experienced successes which made his name immortal far across the frontiers of the empire—around the entire world. Called away in the midst of this great war in which he so energetically co-operated in combating our enemies, it was unfortunately not given to him personally to participate in the end of the fight, but his work will be continued in his spirit by the army and navy.

"The Almighty may console you and your family in the great sorrow for the deceased, whose fame is immortal. The memory of him will always remain sublime and dear to me.

"Wilhelm."

PARADE REVIEW HIS CAREER

BERLIN, March 9, via London, March 10.—The Berlin press is filled today with reviews of the life and achievements of Count Zeppelin, who shared with Field Marshal von Hindenburg the honor of national popularity.

The obituary notices recall the devotion of Count Zeppelin to the realization of his dream, which was not only manifested in a matchless perseverance but also in the sacrifice of his private fortune. The papers recall the emperor's tribute to the count on his 75th birthday, when he termed him "the greatest man of the twentieth century."

Count Zeppelin was ill for less than two weeks and the immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. His death should be his favorite German uniform in which he was best known to the public. Of the long list of orders and decorations which were conferred upon him he was probably proudest of the Iron Cross he won in 1870, the massive oak and metal basket which he wore in the war in 1914, which he will be buried in. It was sealed this afternoon and taken to Stuttgart, where the funeral will take place.

SUPPORT FOR REDMOND

CABLED FROM BOSTON

BOSTON UNITED IRISH LEAGUE

CONDEMNES BRITISH ACTION AND

ULSTER VETO

BOSTON, March 9.—The members of the executive committee of the Boston central branch of the United Irish League of America will support John Redmond and the Irish party "under all conditions." At a meeting of the committee held at the headquarters yesterday the situation regarding home rule in Ireland was discussed, particularly with reference to the action of Premier Lloyd George and the British cabinet.

A cablegram was sent to Mr. Redmond at the house of commons. It reads: "Boston Central branch pledges party absolute support under all conditions. We condemn action of government in breaking pledges solemnly given." The cablegram is signed by President McLaughlin.

In a statement sent out last night the committee "pledge to point out to the American public that the Irish party and the Irish people have loyal lives up to every promise they have made to the British government in the last six years. Lloyd George and his party have again broken the treaty more solemnly made than the treaty of Limerick. They have that the same power of the Irish parliamentary party which forced the government since 1886 to acknowledge the principle of home rule can now force the English government to put the Irish in charge."

The statement points out that "so much bitterness has been aroused by the action of the British government which has been the result of the great achievements which the Irish party has accomplished." The committee says that if sufficient time is allowed and a reasonable opportunity is given by the friends of Ireland to the constitutional leaders they will "have any English government, no matter how strong it may be to recognize their claims."

"We appeal to every loyal friend of Ireland in America to see that John Redmond and his colleagues are given an opportunity to accomplish this last great act," the members say. "The American public must look with undiminished contempt on the specious reference of Lloyd George to the rights of small nations when he is willing to throw over the government of 3,000,000 Irishmen to a handful of Orangemen."

CONG. ROGERS' VIEWS

THINKS SHIPS HAVE NO RIGHT TO

ACCEPT ARGUMENT—LOOKS AS

GRATIFIED BY WILSON ACT

WASHINGTON, March 9.—When informed of the president's purpose to call an extra session of the middle of April Senate, Rogers expressed gratification rather than surprise.

"I have believed all along that Congress should be called early into existence," said Rogers. "I believe that the president has the right to call an extra session of the Senate, and that the Senate should be called early into existence. I believe that the president has the right to call an extra session of the Senate, and that the Senate should be called early into existence. I believe that the president has the right to call an extra session of the Senate, and that the Senate should be called early into existence."

ABANDON CONFERENCE

PARIS, March 10.—The conference of socialist of the allied countries which was to have taken place in Paris from March 15 to 18 has been abandoned as the result of the refusal of the British labor party and a great part of the Russian and Italian socialists to participate.

The heads of the British socialist party vigorously protested against the holding of the conference on the ground that it would give an opportunity to the socialist leaders to create a possible scheme in the socialist ranks and spread a false impression abroad in regard to the attitude of the allied socialists in general.

IMMIGRANTS DEFY THE

HAVE BEEN RELAXED

WASHINGTON, Mar. 10.—Precautions to safeguarding government buildings and reservations, taken when the international situation became most acute a few weeks ago, now have been relaxed so that practically all the attractions of the city are again open to visitors and tourists. The state, war and navy building, the White House and navy yard are the only government reservations which are not freely open. All others are open to visitors and tourists as usual.

BUYS 90,000 BUSHEL OF

MAINE POTATOES

GEORGE W. PERKINS PAYS NEAR-

LY $225,000 FOR NEW YORK SUP-

PLY

BOSTON, March 10.—Nearly 90,000 bushels of New York county potatoes were purchased yesterday through a Boston broker by George W. Perkins, formerly of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. and now president of the National Harvester company, who is making the purchase as chairman of the New York food committee appointed by Gov. Whitman and Mayor Mitchell. The purchase price was "more than $225,000, or in excess of $2.50 a bushel."

The Boston broker was S. J. Shallow of the North American Fruit exchange, the firm that has been reported as having suggested to dealers in Maine that they "hoard potatoes." Following the announcement of the big purchase yesterday Mr. Shallow explained that at the time this advice was given it was known that the Perkins purchase would be made.

The potatoes thus acquired by the New York committee, of which Mr. Perkins is chairman, will be distributed in New York City and state in a "charitable or semi-charitable manner." Their acquisition is designed to aid in the prevention of food riots, in case the Perkins they will be sold at cost, or less than cost, as occasion demands, at places where food riots are imminent. All will be sold in small lots.

GIVE WOMEN CHANCE

TO BE COURTED

TO ERECT APARTMENT HOTEL

FOR UNMARRIED WOMEN OF

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, March 10.—Plans for the erection of an apartment hotel in the heart of New York's shopping district where unmarried working women may rent rooms for $4 a week, were announced today. The structure will be 12 stories high and will contain 400 well lighted rooms. Food will be furnished in the restaurant at cost.

Provisions for the construction and maintenance of the hotel were made in the will of Charles Bertram Webster, for many years head of a department store in this city who set apart $1,325,000 for that purpose.

All the directors of the Webster apartment believe that marriage is the ultimate good of all single women. Secretary Gerard H. Townsend announced, and it is their intention "to give all the young women who live in this hotel an opportunity to be courted."

First seen in this city for a long time was witnessed by hundreds of people who lined the streets from the city hall to the city square. In the procession the four local companies of the National Guard, the Spanish War Veterans and delegations from the various organizations of which deceased was member, and the Sixth Regiment, and.

The funeral procession formed at the house of deceased, 17 Floyd street, the ring squad of Company M and the Spanish War Veterans being on guard on either side of the street.

The formation of the procession was as follows: Sixth Regiment band, Z. I. Deschamps, leader; ring squad of Company M, Lieut. Paul Kittredge in command; Companies M, C. G. and K. in command of Capt. Daniel E. Christian of Company M; officers of the Second battalion, Major Kittredge in command; Spanish War Veterans, Commander B. W. Chandler; delegations of the Bunting club, Emmet club and Lowell aeris of Bagles. Commissioners Brown, Morse, Warnock and Donnelly were present, as was also Adj. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson.

Local past officers acted as a body-guard in the rear of the hearse while the active bearers, all members of Company M, marched on both sides of the hearse. The procession wended its way through Central street, Charles and Gorham streets, as far as the church, the band playing Chopin's funeral march.

At 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Peter's and the large church was filled to its doors. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. P. L. Crayton, assisted by Rev. W. George Mullin as deacon and Rev. D. J. Heffernan as sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. D. J. Keleher, pastor, and Rev. Owen P. McQuade, O. M. I., the latter from the Immaculate Conception church. The choir, augmented for the occasion, rendered the Gregorian chant under the direction of James E. Donnelly, Miss Lulu Ginty presiding at the organ. The solos of the masses were sustained by Miss Gertrude Keleher and Mr. Donnelly. At the offertory Miss Keleher rendered Laybach's "Pie Jesu," and at the elevation Mr. Donnelly sang "Domine Jesu Christe." At the close of the mass the choir rendered "De Profundis."

Rev. Dr. Keleher paid an eloquent tribute to the dead soldier for his loyalty to the flag as proved by his service in the army, and for his Christian character. Next to the service of God, men are honored for serving their country in the cause of justice and right and he was glad to see the deceased soldier honored by the military honors with which he was accorded in his country's service. The presence of the flag, he said, should be an inspiration to loyalty and true patriotism, especially at this time when dangers of various kinds threaten the safety of this republic. He paid a glowing tribute to the flag, stating what it stands for and how it should inspire young and old.

At the close of the service the procession was re-formed and wended its way to St. Patrick's cemetery, where burial took place in the family lot. At the grave taps were sounded by Buglers.
